

Huntington Reservation

Huntington Reservation:

One of the oldest reservations in Cleveland Metroparks, Huntington Reservation still contains many unusual botanical specimens brought here from Europe by philanthropist and inventor, John Huntington, the previous owner and Reservation namesake. In 2011, this lakefront reservation reached a national standard for success when it was awarded the designation of being Blue Wave Certified by the Clean Beaches Council as the first beach in Ohio and on Lake Erie to be recognized as a Blue Wave Beach. The Reservation provides lake access for swimming, beach walking, boating, fishing and bird watching.
